ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Marsh & Parsons are delighted to present this truly unique two-bedroom cottage, steeped in history and offering a rare opportunity to own a piece of Putney's railway heritage. Originally built as a railway signal box and later transformed into a recording studio, the property has since been thoughtfully converted into a charming and distinctive residence, seamlessly blending its fascinating past with contemporary living.

Rich in character and individuality, this exceptional cottage offers a refreshing alternative to a traditional London home, with a unique history that sets it apart.
