ABOUT THE PROPERTY

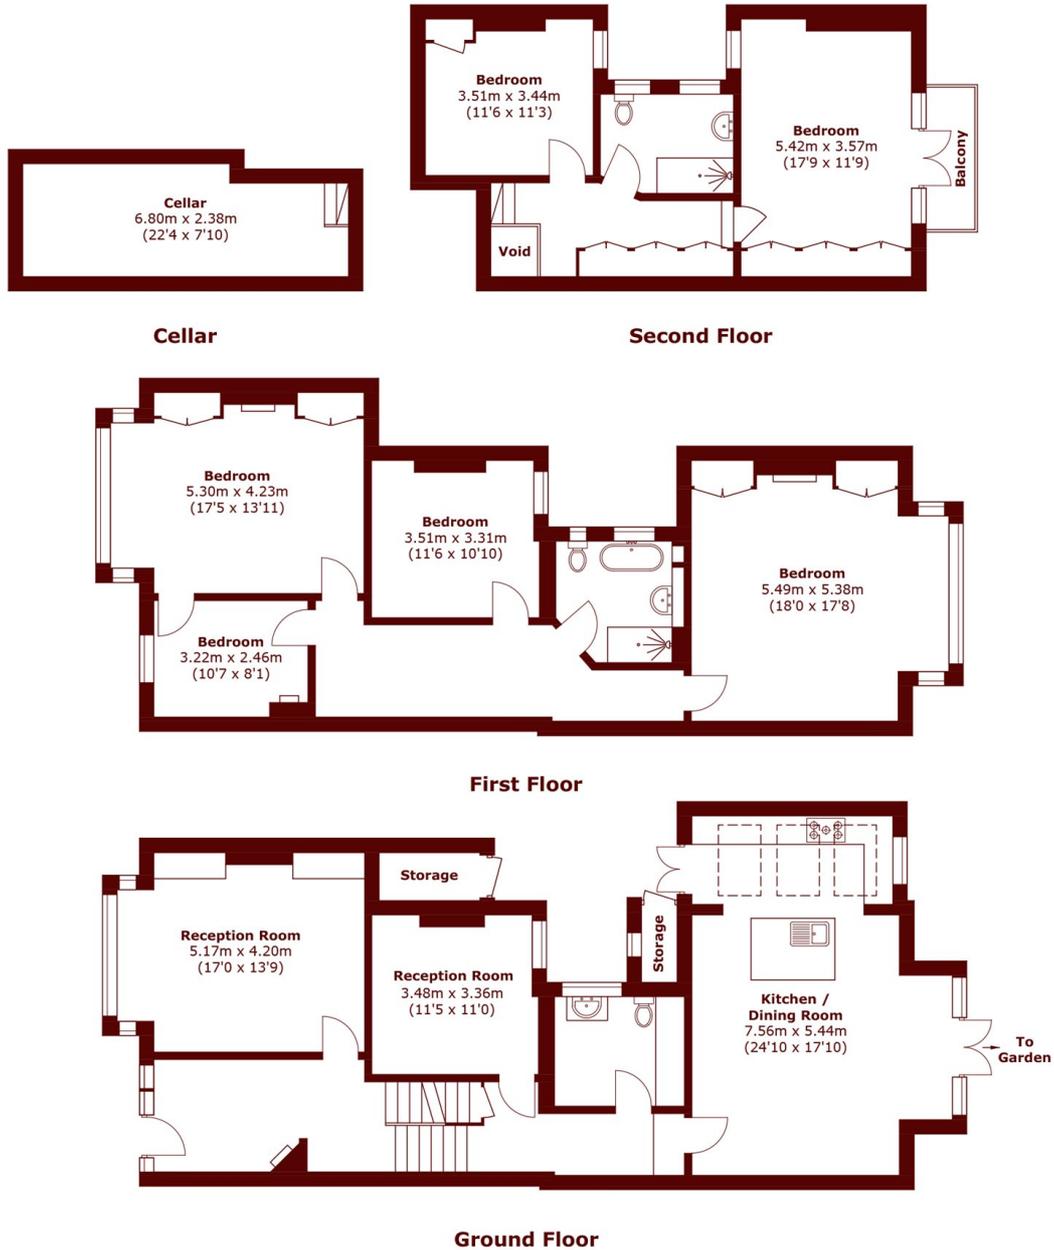

This elegant, high-ceilinged, Edwardian, family home of over 2,700 square feet has been beautifully designed, extended on the ground and top floor and is stylishly presented throughout.

Perfectly positioned on the peaceful central stretch of Dora Road. This natural three storey house features a large family kitchen extended to the side. It offers ample space for a dining table, is stylishly fitted with built-in appliances and a large central island. Crittall glazed doors and windows lead onto a paved patio and large lawn with mature trees and shrub borders.

The two separate reception rooms and the hall have delightful original features including ornate ceilings. There is a handy downstairs WC and cellar providing good storage space. The upper floors provide five spacious double bedrooms and study, most with fitted wardrobes and served by two family bathrooms, one on each floor.
