ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A wonderful, perfectly proportioned, two double bedroom period conversion flat, with its own entrance, a separate kitchen and a delightful, private patio garden. The property further features a generous reception room with fantastic ceiling height, a smart family bathroom as well as an additional room off the second bedroom which lends itself well as a dressing room or to be converted into an en suite bathroom.

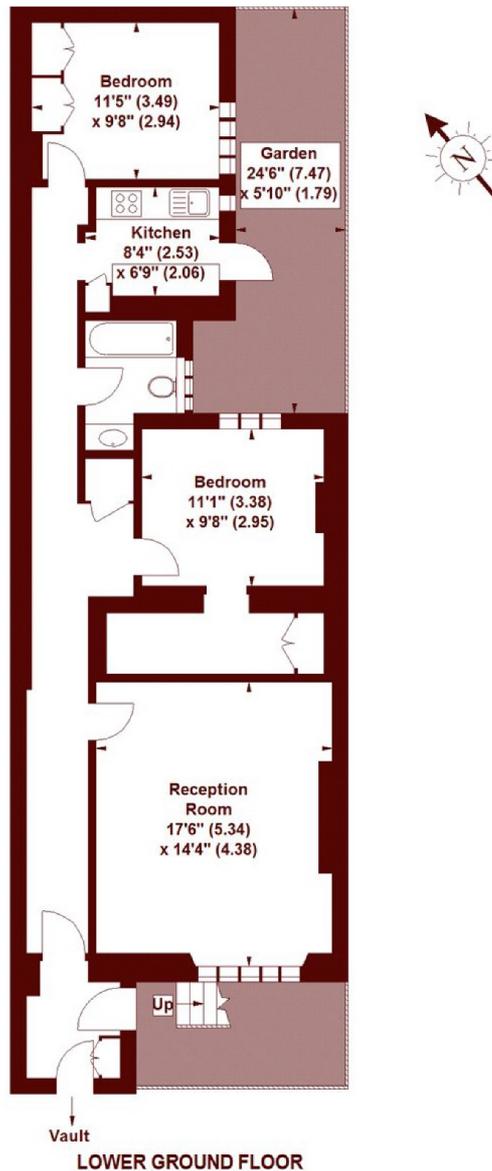

Transport links are tremendous with Pimlico underground station located moments away, while Victoria Station is also a short distance away with London underground routes and National Rail services including the Gatwick Express.
