ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A beautifully presented one bedroom ground floor apartment on Juxon Street, a quiet residential street in Kennington moments from Archbishop's Park and within easy reach of Westminster, Waterloo and central London. The flat has its own private entrance and a bright reception room with wooden flooring and bi-fold doors opening directly onto a private garden. The garden backs onto the communal gardens, creating a rare green outlook and a peaceful sense of space for such a central location.

Juxon Street is nestled within the residential streets of Kennington, with easy access to Westminster and central London. A short walk away from the River Thames, Westminster Bridge and London's Southbank.
