ABOUT THE PROPERTY

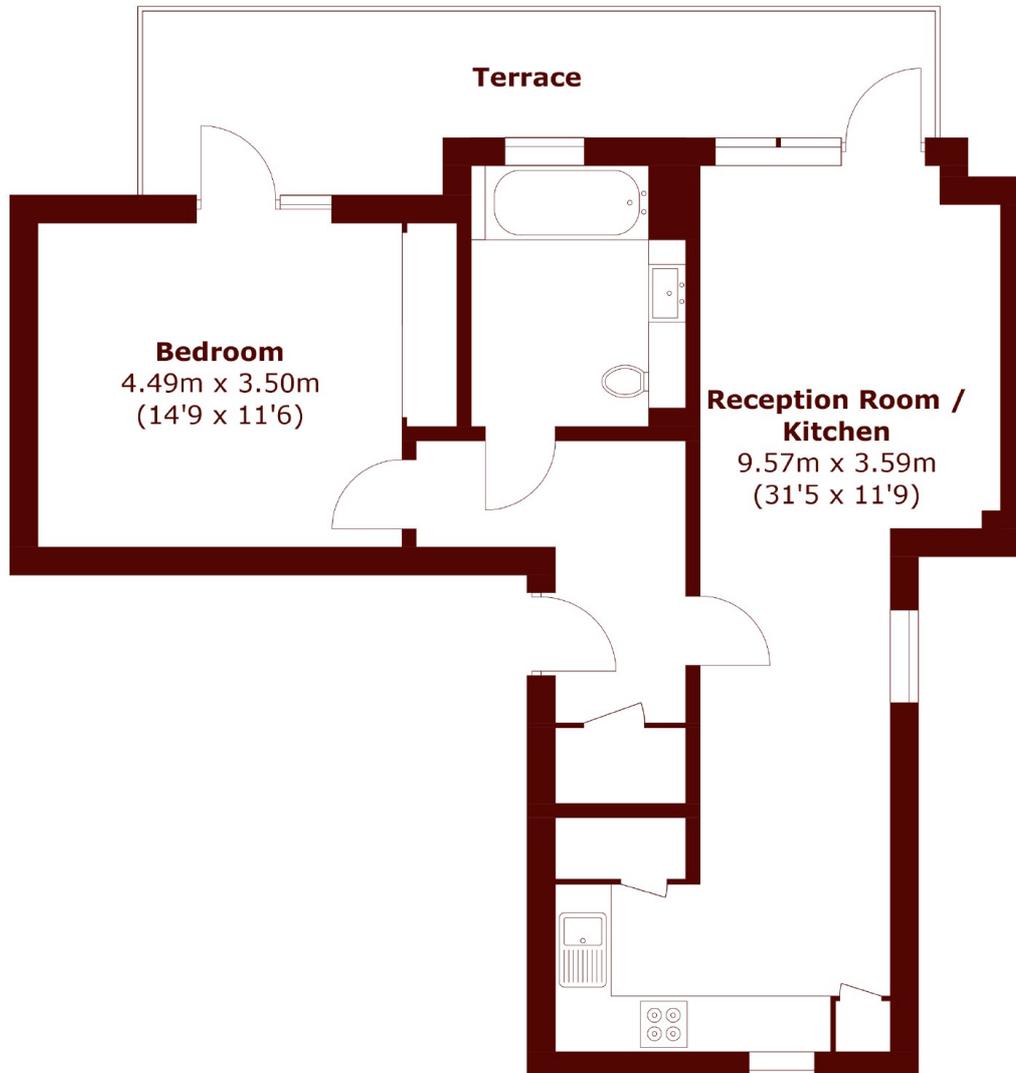

A contemporary one-bedroom apartment with a large private balcony, situated within a quiet modern development in Brondesbury Park.

This beautifully-presented top-floor flat offers bright and modern living in a quiet area. Located in a well-maintained building with lift access, the property features a triple-aspect open plan living room, with fresh interiors and ample natural light. Both the living room and bedroom open onto a private west-facing balcony, perfect for enjoying the afternoon sun.

Boasting a high-quality finish throughout, built-in wardrobes and a washing machine included, the apartment is positioned on the third floor of a purpose-built development with views of the central London skyline. Residents benefit from an allocated off-street parking space with an electric charging point, as well as secure bike storage accessible by fob.

John Barker Court is located in the sought-after area of Brondesbury Park. The property is within a short walk of Brondesbury Park station on the London Overground, as well as Kilburn Station on the Jubilee Line. Both Queens Park (Overground and Bakerloo Line) and West Hampstead (Thameslink).

Total area (approx.): 59.1 sq. m (636.1 sq. ft)
