ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A beautifully presented family home situated on a quiet no through road in the ever popular Tufnell Park. This attractive terraced property offers excellent living accommodation, including an extended kitchen, two reception rooms and four bedrooms. The property is further complemented by the benefit of no onward chain.

The expansive green spaces of Hampstead Heath are close by, along with excellent transport links, including convenient bus routes to the West End and the City. The property also falls within the catchment area for highly sought-after local schools.
