ABOUT THE PROPERTY

This beautifully presented first floor one bedroom flat is set within an attractive period building on Holland Road and is offered in excellent condition throughout. The flat is entered via a well-maintained communal area and benefits from good storage throughout along with a well considered layout. The separate kitchen is located off the main living space, while the spacious reception room features an impressive ceiling height and large windows that allow an abundance of natural light. The bedroom is quietly positioned at the rear of the building and offers generous fitted storage along with direct access to a private terrace.

Holland Road is positioned near the open green spaces of
