ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A bright and spacious one bedroom apartment offering a contemporary living space, with large sash windows on the ground floor of this Victorian building in the heart of the Batterseas' Diamond Conservation Area. The property further benefit's from its own front door.

Located within the Diamond Conservation Area, St. Philip Square is a quiet and attractive street well-placed for ease of access to local amenities on Queenstown Road, Battersea Park Road and nearby Lavender Hill. Queenstown Road overground station provides direct rail services to both Victoria and Waterloo, and the new Northern line tube station at Battersea Power Station gives valuable access to the tube network.
